Occupational Health and Safety Policy
Southland Rubber Group

1. Introduction
Southland Rubber Group’s Occupational Health and Safety Policy outlines our direction in Health and Safety sustainability practices. We shall minimize various risks to Health and Hygiene of employees, contractors and visitors. In addition to compliance with applicable Health and Safety laws and regulations, we shall continuously improve our Health and Safety management to ensure workplace environment does not harm anyone who may be at our business operations.

2. Commitment
We will provide adequate resources, equipment and training for employees at all levels to ensure their health and safety at work.

The company is committed to promoting and maintaining a good working environment for health and safety to prevent injury and sickness.

The company will comply with laws and regulations on occupational health and safety.

We aim to remove or reduce the risks that cause incident of all workers, contractors and visitors, and anyone else who may be affected by at our business operations.

The company will communicate this policy to all employees and stakeholders and will also give advice and create awareness and continuous improvement. The company will review this policy on a regular basis, and the performance with regards to occupational health and safety will be addressed in its sustainability report.

Mr. Pherm Tirasarnvong
Managing Director
31 August 2020